

Months of October-December, 2011: Celebrating a "Wonderful One-of-a-kind Woman- WOW! "

This quarter (October-December, 2011), WWN is proud to celebrate a woman who's a wonderful asset to her community. She's as selfless as she's generous. A woman who's as creative as she's passionate... She's the phenomenal -Angel Freedman.

For many who live in the Richmond Hill area, you're sure to have been positively touched by one of Angel's inspiring events or causes:

- Women's Car Care Clinics;
- Separation and Divorce Self Help Groups;
- Communication in Relationship Course;
- Olde Time Family Picnic;
- Angel's Garage (Providing dignity and support to the homeless in our community)
- And many more.....

Angel, from all of us at WWN, we thank you for your kindness, creativity, professionalism and generosity of spirit. Congratulations on being a "Wonderful One-of-a-kind Woman- WOW!"

For more information about Ms Freedman, please visit her website directly and be a part of her many inspiring initiatives-

www.angelfreedman.com